

Kids Makers Market | June 10th 5-8pm | Degenstein Community Library

We are very excited to team up with the Degenstein Library for our "Kids Makers Market". The Kids Makers Market creates an opportunity for local youth (ages 17 and under) to sell their handmade crafts and products at the Degenstein Library, in the community Room! This event is an awesome way to teach kids about counting and managing money, to engage their creativity, and to inspire a love for local commerce.

We are looking for all art forms handmade by young people as well as young chefs to sell lunch and treats.

Rules and Expectations

- Hand-made items only
- Kid-vendors must be 17 and under
- Kid-vendors must use skills and/or tools to produce their product
